

Day 59 - Something to Leap Over

Wednesday, January 22, 2020

“For by You I can run against a troop, By my God I can leap over a wall.” (Psalms 18:29)

Are you facing obstacles in your life today? Well, take heart. No matter what the enemy is bringing against you or is planning to attack you with, you can have confidence in God who is the Lord God Almighty. Take courage from the writer of Psalms 18:29 who wrote, “For by You I can run against a troop, By my God I can leap over a wall.” He was reflecting on what God had done in his life. When a troop of enemies came after him, God allowed him to run to battle and defeat them. In the second part, he states, that even when a wall was in the way, God provided a way over it. Perhaps you have some walls in your life in the form of debt, issues on your job, deceitful people, being told “no” or that you aren’t qualified or smart enough. It can be any number of things. Well, God is no respecter of persons. Not only did He help David defeat His enemies, but He exalted David in the midst of them. So, do not give up and do not quit. Press on and hold to the Rock that is unyielding. God will make you to run through troops. He will deliver you from the plans your enemies have plotted against you. He will also make you to leap over walls set up to block you and to keep you from the promises God has prepared for you. Rejoice in advance today because God is faithful!

Prayer: “Lord thank you that there is nothing that is too hard for you. Thank you that You will make me to run through troops and to leap over walls this year. You are my protector and my defender. I will trust in You and fear no man. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”
