

Day 75 - Another Level of Thinking

Friday, February 7, 2020

“As the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.” (Isaiah 55:10-11)

Are you able to trust God when things seem confusing and chaotic? When Moses approached Pharaoh and God started to bring plagues on Egypt, the Israelites were punished. Instead of making bricks with straw, Pharaoh ordered them to make them without straw. Think about that for a moment. God found Moses and told him to go to Pharaoh and to tell Pharaoh to, “let my people go”. He sent Moses to deliver them. This should have been great news but, while Moses was informing the people that God had sent him to deliver them, their workload was becoming harder because of him. What they were seeing and experiencing looked nothing like freedom. However, God did fulfill His word in the end. In Isaiah 55:10-11, God says, “As the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.” In an earlier verse, God reminds us that His ways are not our ways and neither are His thoughts our thoughts. So, when things start going haywire and chaotic, take time to sincerely seek God and ask, where are you in this? What is the purpose or lesson in this for me? You may be surprised by what is on His mind.

Prayer: “Lord, I know that nothing happens without your permission or knowing. Help me to trust you even more when times seem confusing and chaotic. Help me to know your ways. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”

Support the Whitby2020 campaign today if you have not done so. Visit www.whitby2020.com.

Pray for God’s continued guidance, protection, provision and success for Cliffard Whitby (Macon-Bibb County 2020 mayoral candidate) and the Whitby2020 campaign team and supporters.

Pray that God would increase this movement and energize others to co-labor with us for positive change.

Whitby2020 for Mayor of Macon-Bibb
P O Box 2646 Macon GA. 31203-2646
478.305.1389
www.whitby2020.com