

Day 31 - The Joy of Reuniting

Wednesday, December 25, 2019

“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” ( John 14:3)

The Christmas Holiday, for most people is a time of reuniting with family and friends you may not have seen in years. So much may have transpired since the last time you spoke in person. Marriages may have taken place, new additions to the family, children all grown up, job changes and relocations. The atmosphere becomes energized by all the excitement. There is just something amazing about gathering together and reuniting with people you love. In our devotional scripture, Jesus said to His disciples before He ascended to heaven, “And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” For those who trust and believe that He is the risen Son of God, what a great reunion to look forward to. The Apostle John got a glimpse of what this will look like. “And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, ‘Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.’” (Revelations 21:3). Because of Jesus’ birth, life death and resurrection, we can look forward to being reunited with Him one day along with all those who also believe in Him. That is truly something to celebrate.

Prayer: “Lord Jesus I celebrate your birth today and your life. Thank you for the opportunity I have to reunite with family and friends once again. Thank you for your resurrection power that assures me that one day I will see you face to face. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”

Pray for God’s continued guidance, protection, provision and success for Cliffard Whitby (Macon-Bibb 2020 mayoral candidate) and the Whitby2020 campaign team and supporters.

Pray that God would grow and increase this movement and energize individuals to co-labor with us for positive change.
