

Day 62 - A Light That Is Unmatched

Saturday, January 25, 2020

“He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, And light dwells with Him.”
(Daniel 2:22)

I recall as a young child being afraid of the dark. There were times when the silhouette of every object in the room appeared to be something scary. Most adults might not admit to being afraid of the dark in places they are familiar with. The answer however, may be different for places they have never been before? The dark can also be unknown situations, complex decisions and unfamiliar people? In Daniel 2:22, we are told of God that, “He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, And light dwells with Him.” I am so glad that though I may not always know what’s just around the corner, where opportunities or pitfalls may lie or the motivations of others, I know someone who does. God does not have to go and get a flashlight, lantern or LED lamp to illuminate your way. God, Himself, is the light. And it is God’s spirit within us that gives us inner guidance. He will direct our steps. Jesus says, in Matthew 5, that we are the light of the world. Therefore, as His light guides us and fills us, we are also able to give light to others. If you need clarity or revelation today, seek the Lord for help. He is saying, “Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.” (Jeremiah 3:33). Call on God today.

Prayer: “Lord, thank you that I am able to call on you when the way is dark. I am grateful that you are the Light and nothing is hidden from you. Please guide my steps today. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”
